Role Reversal: The Undergrad Perspective on Pedagogy (PIE/PFF/PFP)

Presenters: Kate Pierson, School of Theatre, PIE Associate; Tim Hart, Junior BA Theatre Major; Chloe Wilson, Junior BA Theatre and Editing, Writing & Media Major

Have you ever wondered what’s going on inside the minds of your undergrad students? What is it that they need and want from us as their instructors? The only way to know is to ask! Come join us as we swap roles and let two undergrads lead a workshop on creating a student-centered, engaging classroom environment.

Small Changes for a Big Impact (PIE/PFF/PFP)

Presenters: Kate Pierson, School of Theatre, PIE Associate and Dr. Lisa Liseno, Director of the Program for Instructional Excellence

We all know the phrase, “good things comes in small packages,” but when it comes to teaching can small changes really make a big impact? Yes! Building on James M. Lang’s series from the Chronicle of Higher Ed, this workshop will offer a series of 5 minute activities and changes that can improve class participation, facilitate deeper learning, and help you connect with your students.

Wednesday, July 13th
3:30-5:00 PM

*To Register for these workshops, please go to PIE.FSU.EDU  *All workshops qualify for PFF, PFP and PIE credit.  *All workshops will take place at the Great Hall (4th floor) Honors, Scholars and Fellows House
