P.I.E. Newsletter
End-of-Term Issue

Letter from the Editors

Feeling stressed? You’re not alone. This term has been a whirlwind, but we’ve finally reached the finish line! From adjusting to online classes to countless Zoom meetings, we appreciate your efforts and know it’s been rough. Just know the folks here at P.I.E. understand and value your contributions as graduate students to the FSU learning community - we’re all in this together! Nevertheless, we wanted to leave you with some important resources and tips to help you navigate these difficult times.

“Emergency Relief Fund”

The Division of Student Affairs has created an emergency relief fund to assist students who are experiencing a significant financial crisis due to the COVID-19 pandemic. By submitting the application provided on the division of student affairs website, the fund will then disburse to applicants who demonstrate financial need beyond usual expenses and an interruption in expected income or support due to the pandemic.

FSU-Tallahassee Campus
🔗 studentaffairs.fsu.edu/dsarelief-fund#students

FSU-Panama City Campus
🔗 pc.fsu.edu/fsu-panama-city-semi-nole-emergency-relief-fund

“FOOD PANTRIES”

The Department of Student Support & Transitions has created a list of these pantries with contact information in the link provided:
🔗 fla.st/2YNTrET

The FSU Food For Thought Pantry, located at University Center A is also providing weekly distributions on Tuesdays and Fridays. Follow the link below:
🔗 fla.st/2Yg1EmY

“PIE Community Support Canvas Site”

Join our new Canvas course, which offers support to moving Online. Follow the link to see how we can help:
🔗 youtube.be/ID3Kxjrrj8k. We offer tips, trainings, and ask about our Zoom "Office Hours.”
🔗 Enroll here: canvas.fsu.edu/enroll/ JB4D8K

UPCOMING DATES

- Spring 2020 Grades Due Date
  When: May 5th, @ 4 PM EST

- Summer 2020 (A) - 12 Week:
  When: May 11th - July 31st

- Summer PIE Coffee Hour & Teaching Workshops
  When: May 22nd
  June 22nd
  July 22nd
  Where: Online @ Zoom Meetings

TA Spotlight

JoungHwa Woo is in her 2nd year of the MA programs in French and Francophone studies in the Modern Languages and Linguistics Department. She has taught not only French but also Korean and Interior design. Her teaching style reflects individual attention and compassion and also helps her reach her ultimate goal, which is to lead the students to enjoy learning French, increase their cultural awareness, and preparing them to learn continuously. She is grateful to serve this role and is honored to be a recipient of the 2019-2020 OTTA.