PROGRAM FOR INSTRUCTIONAL EXCELLENCE

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Come join fellow TAs and instructors to discuss strategies and techniques that promote excellence in teaching and learning -- bring your questions, concerns, and ideas! As always, coffee & pie will be provided!

SPRING 2019 COFFEE HOUR & TEACHING WORKSHOPS

How to Assess Student Learning

Friday, January 25

We will look at how to craft questions that test higher and lower order learning that are also realistic to grade based on your class constraints.

Online Teaching Tips

Tuesday, February 19

Join us to go over the basics of what an instructor needs to know when teaching an online course, and discuss tips and techniques for building an engaging online learning environment.

How to Create a Teaching Portfolio

Friday, February 8

Session 1: 3:00PM-4:30PM, Session 2: 5:00PM-6:30PM

Teaching portfolios are an important way to illustrate the strategies and techniques you use to encourage student learning. Join us for examples and time to discuss how to create an e-teaching portfolio. Requirements for the submission of teaching portfolios from nominees of FSU's Outstanding Teaching Assistant Award will also be addressed.

TA Panel Q&A Session

Wednesday, March 6

Have a question not yet covered in a workshop? This event will feature a collection of TAs who have extensive classroom experience to tackle any of your teaching concerns. Send in your questions at the PIE helpline: pie-info@fsu.edu!

Crafting a Learning-Centered Syllabus

Monday, April 8

Special Time: 10:00AM - 11:30AM

Creating an effective syllabus is essential for setting the tone for the semester and is an important component of the academic job search. This session will discuss the process of creating a syllabus that clearly communicates learning objectives and course expectations.
