

Fall 2019 - PIE Coffee Hour & Teaching Workshop Series

Join fellow TAs and instructors to discuss strategies & techniques that promote excellence in teaching & learning – bring your questions, concerns and ideas! As always, coffee & pie will be provided! (*A big thanks to our sponsor, COGS!)

Wednesday,
9/4

3:30-5:00 PM

Grading and Rubrics Using Canvas

Learn about, and have time to practice using the features of grade-book in Canvas, including how to create grading rubrics, weighting assignment grades, and setting up your grade-book to save time.

Monday, 9/16

3:30-5:00 PM

Supporting Students in Distress

Discover services at FSU where you can refer your students to assist them with time management, anxiety, stress, academic skills, and more - a panel representing FSU resources will present, and answer your questions.

Thursday, 10/3

3:30-5:00 PM

Small Changes for a Big Impact

We want to make our make our students' learning experience perfect, but becoming an effective teacher is a journey. Learn about small changes you can make this semester to create a meaningful impact on student learning!

Tuesday, 10/22

3:00-4:30 PM

Diversity & Inclusion in Classrooms through Structured Feedback

Learn how routine and ongoing formal anonymous feedback can be positively solicited from your students to create an atmosphere of trust and honest exchange. This type of collaboration is fundamental to building inclusion and diversity in the classroom

Thursday, 11/7

1:00-2:30 PM

Promoting Active Student Engagement

Keeping our students engaged in the learning process isn't always easy – join us to learn and share strategies and techniques to use in your classroom, no matter what your discipline, and learning environment.

*To Register for these workshops, please go to PIE.FSU.EDU

*All workshops qualify for PFF, PFP and PIE credit.

*All workshops will take place in the Nancy H. Marcus Great Hall (4th floor) Honors, Scholars and Fellows House