

When migrating from Blackboard to Canvas please keep in mind that Blackboard and Canvas are two very different LMS systems. This mean your Blackboard content will not transfer over exactly as it was in Blackboard. You might find it easier to simply rebuild your course in Canvas. If you decide to transfer you content over using the Import Content Tool, below are recommendations you might want to keep in mind when using this tool.

Blackboard Content	Canvas Equivalent	How do I use Tool in Canvas?
Announcements	Announcements	Documentation Video
Assignments/SafeAssignment	Assignments	Documentation Video - overview Video – creation

Recommendations

Use Import Content Tool:

- Announcements
- Assignment/SafeAssignments – Transfers as normal assignments, there is no SafeAssignment in Canvas. There will also be a column created in the Grade Center
- Calendar
- Discussion Board – Discussion prompts transfer over
- Glossary – Transfers as Pages
- Grade Center
- Tasks– Transfers as Pages
- Tests, Surveys and Pools – will transfer in Quizzes section. Only multiple choice, fill in the blanks, essay, matching, numerical and formal will transfer. If not supported by Canvas the question becomes text only question

Import Separately

- Course Files & Documents –transferring files could be confusing or hard to find. It will be best to download all course files into zip file and import into Canvas files directly.
- Wikis – although they do transfer over into Pages in Canvas, some were missing and were not linked. It will be best to copy and paste them into the Pages section of Canvas.

- Web Links -transfer over, but they are not organized or missing. It will best to just create new links in your Canvas course.

Create New

- Content Areas – some content area pages transfer as pages. You would need to recreate.
- Groups – they do not transfer over, so you will need to recreate.

Learning Modules – transfers as Pages. You will need to recreate in Modules.

- Course Organization – your course structure will not transfer over exactly as it was in Blackboard.

Work-Arounds

- Blogs – students can use a 3rd party application such as Blogger.com (<http://www.blogger.com>) and share the URL with the class or you can create a Discussion Board just for them.
- Journals - Canvas assignments allow multiple submission attempts by default. This is great for a recurring assignment like a weekly reflection journal. Students will be able to open this assignment over and over, submitting new journal entries each time. Please note: the steps below are only if the instructor plans to grade the Journal overall and not each submission.

Creating a Journal in Canvas

Create a New Assignment

In the Assignments screen, enter the name of the Assignment.

Add the total points possible for this assignment
Select Online from the Submission Type drop down

Under Online Entry Options, select Text Entry

Canvas assignments allow multiple submission attempts by default so do not close off assignment. This way, students will be able to open this assignment over and over, submitting new journal entries each time. The instructor can also communicate with student using the commenting feature in right sidebar.
