In the world of online education, assessment of student competency can be a challenging detail in your overall course design. It is important to choose the variety of testing—proctored, open book, etc.—that is best suited for your class and your course learning objectives. This workshop features speakers from FSU’s Office of Distance of Learning who will discuss testing tools such as Honorlock, as well as alternatives to online proctored assessment and tips for ensuring online academic integrity.

Event Details

Date: Wednesday, July 22
Time: 3:00 PM - 4:50 PM
Zoom links will be sent closer to the date.