PIE Conferences
Each fall and spring PIE offers university-wide teaching trainings/orientations that introduce graduate students to FSU teaching resources, policies, and best practices for teaching and learning.

PIE Coffee Hour & Teaching Workshop Series
Join fellow FSU TAs and instructors to discuss strategies and techniques that promote excellence in teaching and learning - coffee and pie are provided!

Outstanding TA Award (OTAA)
These awards recognize outstanding TAs for their distinguished contributions to student learning through excellence in instruction.

PIE Recognitions
PIE offers two types of Teaching Training Recognition (general and advanced) with the goal of enhancing TA teaching practice beyond the PIE Teaching Conference.

PIE Associates
Experienced TAs can apply to become a PIE Associate and serve as a mentor for TAs in your academic department and university-wide.

TA Handbook
Use this as a guide to learn more about teaching tips, resources, and policies while serving as a TA at FSU. To access the handbook, visit pie.fsu.edu.

PIE TA Book Groups
Book groups are a great chance to share ideas with colleagues from across the university. Discuss texts about teaching & learning, and generate practical ideas for enriching your classroom. For dates see pie.fsu.edu

Goals & Objectives
- Promote FSU nationally and internationally as a leading research university committed to student learning.
- Orient graduate students to the University, its teaching policies, resources, and services.
- Provide awareness of teaching and learning best practices to improve the quality of undergraduate instruction by graduate student teaching assistants.
- Highlight and reward excellent teaching by graduate students.
- Support departments in developing departmental teaching assistant training programs.
- Establish mentoring relationships between experienced & new graduate student teaching assistants.
- Provide graduate students with opportunities for peer review of instruction.
- Provide teaching and service experiences designed to prepare graduate students for the range of responsibilities they will meet as future faculty members.
